

THE ALLOTMENT YEAR ADDITIONAL WORKSHOPS
Further your skills and knowledge	Activity
Planning your plot	Mapping out your allotment plot Compass alignment – where is North, South, East and West? Permanent structures Crop rotation and best bed use Winter projects
Building Planters	Hands on activity to build and fill a planter ready for growing
Build a Composting Bay	Hands on activity installing a set of bays
Water harvesting systems	Hands on activity ensuring you get the best of the rainfall
Creature Homes and bug hotels	Make creature homes of various types for suitable creatures such as hedgehogs, birds and insects to attract them into your allotment
Pond installation	Hands on activity attracting frogs and newts into the allotment site
How to apply for funding	Building a successful bid application and funding streams
How to set up a committee and engage with your local authority	Committee formation and structure Benefits of forming a committee Drafting a constitution Barriers and tips to communicating with your local authority
Tools, Equipment and maintenance	How to look after and maintain tools and equipment Up-cycling for maintenance Repairs
Saving your own seed	How to collect and store seed Tips and know how
Preserving your food Jams and Chutneys	Recipes and tips Tasters

Contact Sarah at One Green World to enquire about how these workshops could benefit your group or school. We can deliver on your site and offer full day programmes as well as 3 hour slots.

Call Sarah on 07464-545-667